

FARMER GORED TO DEATH BY A BULL

Shaken from Tree in Which He Sought Refuge from Maddened Animal.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Petersburg, Va., March 15.—George Retter, aged sixty-one years, a farmer of Dinwiddie county, residing a few miles from Petersburg, was attacked and fatally gored by a bull on his place Saturday afternoon, dying from his injuries before a physician could reach him.

The animal was considered dangerous, and Mr. Retter had been warned against him. On Saturday Mr. Retter went out to trim some fruit trees near where the bull was grazing. The bull charged upon him, and Mr. Retter climbed one of the trees, from which he was shaken by the attack of the animal. As he fell he was attacked and gored, the animal's horns penetrating the unfortunate man's body, breaking his ribs and causing fatal injuries. He was rescued, but died in a short while. He is survived by one son and one daughter.

Smith, a committee of the board of visitors of the Fredericksburg State Normal School, have gone over the property here recently chosen for the site for the school, in company with a landscape artist, with the view of selecting situations for the various buildings. The question of a suitable approach to the property was also considered. It is expected that work on the grounds will begin in a short time.

BARBER IN REARRESTED.

He Must Now Face Court on Charge of Bigamy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—NORFOLK, VA., March 15.—Michele Arrese, a barber, formerly located in this city, who was arrested yesterday afternoon in Richmond on the charge of non-support, sworn out by his wife, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. He was sent on to the Corporation Court, and in addition he will face a charge of bigamy, it being claimed that he was married to a woman in New York prior to his marriage with the woman who is suing him here.

In the court to-day Arrese admitted that he had sent his wife but $5 since last August, but declared that it was up to his wife to live with him or continue her suit for separation and alimony.

The wife claims that he had money when he left for New York, declaring that he was going to visit his mother, and that since that time she has received only $2, although with two children to support.

When released on bond for his appearance in the higher court, Arrese was immediately rearrested on the bigamy charge.

PRISON HARDSHIPS AFFECTED AFTER LIFE

One of the most interesting experiences that has been recorded in connection with the Cooper remedies, which are now being extensively sold in this city, is related by Mrs. Henry Stratmann, of 265 East Tenth Street, New York. Mrs. Stratmann describes the case of her husband, a veteran of the Civil War, who spent eleven months of his service in Andersonville Prison. She says:

"My husband had stomach trouble for many years. He was for thirty-four years employed in a sugar refinery. He is an old soldier of the Civil War, and during that struggle was incarcerated for eleven months in Andersonville Prison. As a result of the hardships imposed upon him at that time, he has never had a healthy stomach since.

"During the past twelve years, however, his trouble gradually became more aggravated, and for several years past he has suffered terribly. He got so he ate very sparingly and seemed to have no desire for food. Liquids formed his principal diet, as solid food hurt him and made the pain more severe.

"Doctors were consulted, but failed to help him. One doctor diagnosed his trouble as cancer of the stomach, and held out no hope. He also tried a number of remedies that were recommended, but might as well have saved his money for all the good they did. About two months ago he was persuaded to give the Cooper remedies a trial, and procured a treatment of Cooper's New Discovery.

"Now he is well. I have not seen him look so strong and hearty in years. He feels splendid and eats any kind of food he likes. All the pain has disappeared, and he is entirely free from gas. We deeply appreciate what Cooper's New Discovery has done for him, and having proved it to be a sovereign stomach medicine, we do not hesitate to freely recommend it to all who suffer from stomach disorders."

Cooper's New Discovery is now on sale at leading druggists everywhere. If you are unable to get it from your local druggist, notify The Cooper Medicine Company, Dayton, Ohio.

E. L. EVANS DEAD IN SOUTH BOSTON

Ex-Mayor and Prominent Business Man Dies While Walking in Yard.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—SOUTH BOSTON, VA., March 15.—E. L. Evans, a well known citizen of this place, died suddenly of apoplexy about 3:30 o'clock this morning. He was in his front yard on Washington street when he died. The news spread over the town rapidly, and was a shock to his many friends.

Mr. Evans was fifty-two years of age, and a member of the Presbyterian Church at this place. He had been a resident of South Boston for the past twenty-six years, and was at one time a capitalist. He was a member of the Town Council a number of times, and was also Mayor of the town two terms. He was engaged in the lumber business here for a number of years.

He leaves a wife, who was before her marriage Miss Minnie Elston, of Farmville, and ten children—Misses Mildred, Pattie, Rita, Elizabeth, Mayland, Dorothy, and John, Edwin, William and Frank Evans. The funeral will take place from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and interment will be made in Oakridge Cemetery.

MORE TRAINING NECESSARY.

Work of North Carolina Men on Range Discouraging.

RALPHIGH, N. C., March 15.—Declaring that if men of the North Carolina National Guard are to continue to participate in the annual shoots at Camp Perry, Ohio, more attention must be paid to training the men by the officers at home. Adjutant-General T. R. Robertson, in his annual report just from the State Printer, states that the shooting made by the men at Camp Perry last summer was actually discouraging. He urges that the men of all three regiments be given at least ten days' training on the range at Morehead this summer. The report says the general condition of the North Carolina Guard is very much better now than ever before, and that the recent formation of the Coast Artillery is a decided advance in the matter of military organization and equipment. He regrets that a number of the companies in the State are still rather lax in the matter of care of the equipment furnished, and declares that any one who will devise some effective system of enforcing proper care will do the service a great benefit.

Young Man Drowns.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—SOUTH BOSTON, VA., March 15.—Plummer Jones, son of Sam Jones, of this place, was drowned at Hyco Falls, a few miles below this place, Saturday. He was with a party fishing, and endeavored to wade out to an island, getting beyond his depth. He was about twenty-two years of age.

FARMERS ORGANIZE.

They Will Take Up Study of Progressive Methods.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—GREENSBORO, N. C., March 15.—At a co-operative meeting here to-day of the Board of County Commissioners, the public school teachers, numbering nearly one hundred, and over two hundred farmers, and actual farmers, it was unanimously decided to not only enlist in the "Boys' Competitive Corn-Growing Contest," under the supervision of the State Agricultural Department, but to organize a Guilford county boys' contest with additional county prizes of $100 in cash premiums for the best yields on one acre of corn grown by boys between the ages of 12 and 18. A county committee to act under the State Rules, composed of Messrs. W. C. Michael, John W. Wharton, D. H. Coble, J. A. Hoskins and Hugh Gray, was appointed, and the former boys' corn contest brigade of Guilford county will be organized in time for the coming corn crop.

It was also decided to have a corn-testing day for the farmers of Guilford at an early day as the National Department of Agriculture, under charge of State Agent Hudson, can name.

After the teachers had adjourned there was a special meeting of the farmers and county commissioners to consider and discuss a proposition for the establishment of farm demonstration work in Guilford county, and the employment of a county demonstration agent. After mutual discussions among the farmers and the commissioners, it was unanimously decided by the farmers present that the county commissioners at once proceed to select a competent and public-spirited farmer to organize and superintend the farm demonstration work, at a cost not to exceed $75 per month for the next seven months.

It was an enthusiastic and harmonious meeting, showing that the progressive farmers and public school teachers of Guilford are ripe for the movement, coming in such large numbers on such an incident day.

Prior to the action, the joint meetings of teachers, farmers and county commissioners were addressed by C. R. Hudson, special agent of the United States Department of Agriculture, who described the work of the demonstration farms in the sixteen counties of the State where they have been in use for the past year, and showed what splendid results had followed in every county, the practical application of modern and improved methods of preparation of soil, application of fertilizer and rotation of crops, and the science of seed selection. There is no more progressive set of farmers in the State than those of Guilford county, but they realize that to keep in the front rank there must be practical co-operative effort along lines demonstrated to be valuable in other counties. They took hold with a will to-day, there not being a discordant note during the whole session.

RISKS ALL FOR GIRL.

Marine Leaves Navy for Sake of Virginia Sweetheart.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., March 15.—His infatuation for pretty Millie McClaron, sixteen years old, who met him in a penny arcade in Market Street during Christmas week, and whom he married last Thursday, may lead to trouble for Benjamin F. Smith, a marine stationed at the Philadelphia navy yard. He has been absent without leave six Saturday week, and unless he reports to the navy and officials before Wednesday, he will be classed as a deserter.
